

Quotes from Campers

“This is a very clean, safe environment. My wife and I have been here for a year and I've had no problems.”

“You can leave your things out and you know that nobody's going to bother it.”

“We all know each other, and we can patrol ourselves. We take pride in our living situation.”

Camp Unity Eastside

*Non-profit Safe & Secure Shelter Since 2012
More Than an Average Tent Village*

AMENITIES

Campers are provided with:

- A personal & private tent
- Access to washer and dryer
- Access to shower
- Hot meals
- Transportation for medical needs at no charge
- Use of office computer for medical, work, & social service needs

Camp Unity is generously supported by a variety of volunteers, faith communities, and businesses. We have a good supply of donations that are available for all residents.

PROCESS TO APPLY

For our safety and our neighbors' safety, all potential new campers will be asked to complete a health checklist and pass a Warrant and Sex Offender check. We enforce a Code of Conduct and camp rules that every camper must follow.

All applicants must:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Possess valid Washington or other state's ID (driver's license or ID card.) Passports and BIA IDs are not accepted.
- Be free of any outstanding warrants (including non-extraditable out-of-state warrants)
- Be free of any sex offender status
- Be free of any no-contact or temporary restraining orders against current CUE residents
- Be physically capable of walking around on their own power and lifting up to 20-40 pounds

CUE is a drug & alcohol free camp, including all forms of marijuana. Weapons are not allowed.

CUE does not allow pets or emotional support animals.

New campers must successfully complete a two week probationary period. During the first week of probation, campers must spend each night in camp, and complete one four-hour security shift per day.

There is an interview as part of the intake process.

Intakes are typically done between 9AM and 4PM.

Our Mission is..

To provide safe shelter for homeless adults in a community setting while they are working to obtain stable housing.

CUE is a transitional mobile encampment and self-managed outside community hosted by faith community partners in the Eastside King County area.

The CUE community fosters resilience, relationships, self-confidence, and hope. CUE provides a safe place to stay and take steps out of homelessness.

Each member here is a responsible and active part of keeping CUE running with the support and oversight of a volunteer board of directors. We offer residents a safe place to reside, shower, and eat. To defray operating costs, campers pay a monthly maintenance fee of $30. In this way we empower our camp and each other to be contributors.
